

June 4, 2020

Dear Parishioners,

We reopened our doors for weekend Masses. We had 48 people on Saturday, 45 at the 8 am and 41 at 10:30 am. With great help from Fred and John Paul Legare everything went very smoothly.

We are using the tickets again this weekend, but I don't think we will need them after that, but we will see how things go as we move forward this weekend.

A couple of things to note. If you need to get your $26 to the 200 Club, you can send your money to the rectory and we will get it to Joan Tracey or Gwen Topper. There will be a drawing next Tuesday, June 9.

Sunday, June 14 is the feast of Corpus Christi. Fr. Harry and I are not comfortable with a procession. There are just too many obstacles to social distancing. At the end of the 10:30 am Mass, we will expose the Blessed Sacrament until 2 pm to give people this time for Adoration in church.

We expect to re-open the office on a part time basis this coming Monday, May 8. Roz will be in the office until noon. She will continue to work from home on Thursday. Elaine will work on Monday until noon and then in the afternoons she will continue to work at home. We will publish other days when she will be in the office after Monday of next week. Josh is already back at work full time. Doria will be back soon. We want to open up, but we want to do so carefully.

I know some of you are still frightened about the virus and still a little hesitant. Please return when you are comfortable. We will continue live streaming on Sundays until you are ready to come back. Even then we will live-stream for the shut-ins at home.

Fr. Marty
