Dear Parishioners,

Greetings from the Fortress of Solitude. Fr. Harry and I are slowly getting back into shape. We are much better than we were for the last two weeks. I am in better shape than I was on Christmas Eve.

We will have Masses for the Holiday. Thursday afternoon, December 31 at 4:30 pm and Friday morning, Jan 1 at 9:30 am. We hope those assigned as various ministers will feel safe in attending. We would ask for a second Eucharistic Minister as we both think it is best for us not to give out Communion.

On the weekend we will not have Confessions this Saturday. There will be Mass at 4:30 pm. We will only have ONE Mass on Sunday at 10:30 am. We believe we can celebrate one Mass a morning but are not sure about our stamina for two.

The 10:30 am will be live streamed for those who continue to stay safe at homes.

We will return to our regular schedule beginning Monday. Thank you for your prayers and thoughts during this insane pandemic time.

Fr. Marty
